

CHANG KEE JUNG, Ph. D.

Professor of Physics

Citizenship: U.S.A.

Education: Graduate

Ph.D. in Physics, specializing in Experimental High Energy Physics

Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana, May 1986

Thesis Title: Measurement of The  $F^+$  Meson Lifetime

Thesis Advisor: Prof. Harold O. Ogren

Undergraduate

Bachelor of Science in Physics

Seoul National University, Seoul, Korea, 1979

Honors: Awards

Academy of Teacher-Scholar Award, Stony Brook University, 2003

American Physical Society Fellow, 2002

Asahi Prize (shared, Super-Kamiokande Collaboration), 1998

U.S. Dept. of Energy, Outstanding Junior Investigator Award, 1994

Outstanding Research Assistant Award, Indiana University, 1986

Outstanding Associate Instructor Award, Indiana University, 1983

Fellowships and Visiting Positions

Spanish Ministry of Science and Education Visiting Professor Fellowship, Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona, Spain, 2005

Visiting Professor, KEK, Japan, 1998

Japan Society for Promotion of Science (JSPS) Fellow, 1998

Center of Excellence (COE) Fellow, University of Tokyo, 1997

Service Positions in Research

Spokesperson, HUSEP (Henderson Underground Science and Engineering Project) Collaboration, 2004 – present

Spokesperson, T2K US B280 Collaboration, 2004 – present

Chair, Interim Board of Representatives, T2K International Collaboration, 2003 – present

Spokesperson, UNO Collaboration, 2000 – present

Co-Spokesperson, US K2K Collaboration, 1996 – present

Employment History:

2000-present Professor, Department of Physics, The State University of New York at Stony Brook, Stony Brook, New York

1996-2000 Associate Professor, Department of Physics, The State University of New York at Stony Brook, Stony Brook, New York

1990-1996 Assistant Professor, Department of Physics, The State University of New York at Stony Brook, Stony Brook, New York

1986-1990 Postdoctoral Research Physicist, Stanford Linear Accelerator Center, Stanford University, Stanford, California

1982-1986 Graduate Research Assistant, Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana

1980-1982 Graduate Teaching Assistant, Indiana University, Bloomington, Indiana

Publications: 184 refereed journal articles; 30 significant other articles; and 1 book edited.

Talks: 45 conference talks, 31 colloquia, 35 seminars, 8 invited presentations to national committees, and 14 public lectures